➢ FDR# 2006-029 New State SAP Charts

FDR# 2006-029 New State SAP Charts

As part of the installation your Old State SAP Charts will be preserved, and the New State SAP Charts will be inserted automatically.

5. Change to Satisfactory Academic Progress Chart

A change in legislation has created a uniform chart used to determine a student’s satisfactory academic progress. The following chart must be used by all institutions for first-time undergraduate students beginning with the 2006-07 academic year.

Note: Graduate students must meet the SAP requirement chart submitted by each college and approved and on file with the New York State Education Department.

The SOAYSAP Form has been changed to display HESC Year in the Key Block. The New State SAP Charts will be inserted with a HESC Year of 2006. The Old State SAP Charts will be preserved with at HESC Year of 0.

Example:
The SICAS State Award Certification Process, SORTYCE, and the SICAS Good Academic Standing Process, RPRYGAS (including SHKYGAS), delivered with this release has been changed to use the appropriate chart based on the year when the student first received State Aid.

If an institution decides to use the new charts for previous awardees – then the charts associated with HESC Year 0 should be updated accordingly with the new SAP Chart values. The SICAS Software will not inhibit an institution from using both charts.
The SICAS State Award Certification Process, SORYTCE, has been modified to display the year the student first received Stated Aid under the name field on the output listing as shown below.
